The Conference of College Teachers of English (CCTE) welcomes scholarly papers, creative writing, and panels in all areas of literature and language, including linguistics and language studies, as well as the teaching of these areas. Also welcome are papers and panel proposals in teaching writing, ESL, developmental writing, and the virtual classroom.

Guidelines:

- By October 8, 2022: Online submissions accepted at www.cctetx.org.
- Timed presentations only: 7-9 double-spaced pages (15-18 minute reading time).
- No multiple submissions for CCTE: You may, of course, submit one piece to CCTE and another to the Texas College English Association (TCEA), which meets jointly with CCTE. TCEA has its own CFP.
- Paper submissions: 250-word abstracts or full versions of conference papers.
- Creative submissions: Works in poetry, fiction, and creative non-fiction must be complete when submitted.
- Panel proposals: These must include a full abstract or paper from each panel member.
- Blind judging: All abstracts, papers, creative pieces, and panel proposals MUST be submitted with one cover page: one cover page with the title, presenter's name, academic affiliation (or "Independent Scholar"), mailing address, telephone, and email address. The actual abstract, paper, creative writing, or panel proposal must be titled but bear NO writer identification on any of its pages.
- Program acceptance: If work is accepted for presentation, presenters must pay CCTE dues and register before the conference. CCTE only accepts submissions that have not been read or published elsewhere.
- Prizes and publication in *CCTE Studies: Those who also want their work considered for prizes and publication must meet a February 11, 2023, deadline for dues, registration, and submission of full papers.
